Henry Mallon Has Close Call as Tree Rope Encircles His Neck—Fraternity Elections—Trolley Road Owners Inspect Property—$500 Prize for Wm. L. Cottrell.

The annual meeting of Hancock post, No. 81, G. A. R., department of Connecticut, was held Wednesday evening in the quarters in Memorial building, the most important business being the election of these officers: Walter Price, commander; William F. Hawkins, senior vice commander; Amos P. Chapman, junior vice commander; Charles H. Holdredge, quartermaster; Joshua M. Clark, surgeon; Frank D. Brightman, chaplain; Frank D. Brightman, patriotic instructor; Joseph Smith, officer of the day; Elery Barber, officer of the guard; Horace Slason, representative, and Charles H. Holdredge, alternate to the state encampment.

The officers will be installed the first Wednesday evening in January, when the appointive officers will be named, the present incumbents being: Thomas D. Sheffield, adjutant; Horace Slason, sergeant major; Stephen W. Collins, quartermaster sergeant. After the business session the comrades were the guests of Commander Price at an oyster supper.

Twenty-five members of the class of 1912 of the West Broad street school made a trolley trip and surprise visit to their classmates, Chester Merrill, at his home on the Daisy farm in North Stonington, Wednesday evening. The visitors were given a cordial reception and there was no delay in starting the games of amusement, which were interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. There was an abundance of refreshments. A feature was a large cake, decorated with lavender and white roses, the class colors. The party was accompanied by the Misses Woodmansee, Hazard, Brandt and Butters, teachers at the school.

Rev. Charles W. Burnham, who nine years ago was elected by Joseph L. Peacock, now librarian of the Westery public library, as pastor of the North Baptist church, has resigned to take effect February 27, 1910. Rev. Mr. Burnham has resigned for personal reasons and has made no plans for the future.

In the case of the Washington Trust company of Westery against the Nichols & Langworthy Machine Co., the supreme court has entered decree approving the expenditure by the receiver of the defendant corporation of $359.46 in excess of the sums previously allowed for the preservation and conservation of the property.

Henry Mallon had a peculiar accident which threatened death by strangulation while assisting in cutting down a tree on the Lorraine property in Mechanic street, Thursday morning. Mallon was in a crotch of the tree when a rope was made fast to a limb that was about to be cut off and lowered to the ground. When the limb was cut, the rope encircled Mallon's neck. The heavy weight of the limb tautened the rope and Mallon was being strangled. His predicament was discovered and the rope was cut and Mallon released. The rope had left its impress around

NORWICH BULLETIN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1909

Henry Mallon Has Close Call as Tree Rope Encircles His Neck—Fraternity Elections—Trolley Road Owners Inspect Property—$500 Prize for Wm. L. Cottrell.

Mallon's neck, the skin being torn on the left side of his face and his nose was cut.

A party of men interested in the trolley roads doing business in Westery, were here Thursday, making a visit of inspection. The party came here direct from Norwich and inspected the Norwich & Westery road. They then went over the Ashaway & Westery road, and in the afternoon over the Pawcatuck Valley road, including the Pleasant View branch.

In the party were some who although among the largest owners of the roads, had never made personal inspection of the properties. The inspection party was accompanied by Supt. Judson Cousins.

Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, elected these officers in annual meeting: Daniel Donohue, president; Eugene Sullivan, vice president; John O'Donnell, recording secretary; Martin Devine, financial secretary; James Shea, treasurer.

Division No. 1 of Stonington elects officers as follows: Edward Barrett, president; Patrick Cullen, vice president; John Gilmore, recording secretary; Edward J. Flanagan, financial secretary; John J. O'Neill, treasurer.

Local Laconics.
Thomas McKenize underwent a successful operation for appendicitis in a private hospital in Providence Thursday.

Philippe Bonomo and Grazia Pasciella have been married in Pawcatuck, by Rev. W. A. Krouse, and the breach of promise suit ended.

William H. Slason was buried with Masonic honors Thursday afternoon. Although a World War veteran, he was not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Henry Clark will represent the Westery high school at a meeting of the baseball managers of the Connecticut interscholastic league in New Haven Saturday.

William L. Cottrell of New York, a former resident of Westery, where his mother now lives, has been awarded the first prize of $500 in competition for design of Pennsylvania state monument at Gettysburg.

Relatives of Andrew Rogers, whose body was found in the woods near Wood River Junction, are inclined to believe that death was due to murder, not suicide. Coroner Tucker and Sheriff Wilcox are investigating.

Frederick Lucke of Westery, whose arm was fractured while setting up a printing press in a crotch of a tree, was taken to St. John's hospital in that city, is threatened with typhoid fever. Mrs. Lucke has gone to Fall River.

PHYSICAL TEST FOR

ARMY OFFICERS ALL WRONG
Surgeon General Torney on the Defect of the Requirement.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Making a direct hit at the annual Roosevelt physical test for army officers, Surgeon General Torney says in his annual report, made public today, that it is believed that the present test not only fails in the object sought—a physical condition which would enable them to be always fit for active field service—but may result in serious injury to elderly officers.

The defect of the requirement, as it appears to General Torney, is that it requires officers to be fit only once a year. He wants them to be fit all the time.

General Torney would induce field officers to ride regularly by having the government provide mounts and orderlies for them, wherever stationed. He deems it unjust to require officers not with troops to take regular rides during the year. He advocates that the test ride be not required of those serving in the tropics or those of officers who have reached the age of 42 years.

Abbott, formerly employed by the New First National bank of Columbus, who confessed a shortage of $2,150, were indicted by a federal grand jury today.

Abbott appeared in court later, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the Fort Leavenworth penitentiary for six years.

NAVY YEAR BOOK FOR 1909.

THE RACE FOR SECOND PLACE
Among the Navies of the World Lies Between United States and Germany.—The Standing.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The navy year book for 1909, compiled by Pitman Fulsifer, clerk of the senate committee on naval affairs, shows that the race for second place among the navies of the world to be still very close as between the United States and Germany.

Of fighting ships (battleships and armored cruisers) built, building and provided for, this country has 45 and Germany has 46, but the aggregate tonnage for the United States is 659,241 as against 654,334. Germany, however, has a larger number of small vessels than this country and her total tonnage is $20,692 as against 785,687 for the United States. Germany's superiority in respect to all vessels is due largely to her torpedo destroyers, of which she has 97 as against our 36. Germany also outnumbers us in the matter of large guns, the number being 308 as against 150.

Of the fighting vessels built and in operation the American tonnage is 78,000 tons in excess of that of Germany. Great Britain is shown to possess 104 fighting ships with a total tonnage of 1,480,680. France has 46 fighting vessels, but her tonnage is more than that of either the United States or Germany.

The American vessels are the only ones carrying 12-inch guns and the German vessels the only ones carrying 11-inch guns. All the big guns on British ships are 12-inch. Thirty-two of our guns are of 12-inch caliber.

The year book also shows a total appropriation of $1,416,138,448 for the construction of the new navy since it began in 1885.

MONEY ORDERS BY CABLE.

Transfer Agreement Between British Postoffice and the Western Union.

London, Dec. 9.—The British post-office department announced today that it had concluded a money transfer agreement with the Western Union Telegraph company, through which that company would be permitted to make cable transfers of money between its offices in the United States and points in Great Britain and Ireland, where the orders will be cashed through the postal department. The arrangement has the sanction of the British treasury and will become operative on January 1 next.

Says He has Sold Patent to Government for $800,000.

New Haven.—Miss Margaret Murphy, a teacher, has resigned and will leave for St. Joseph's school at St. Joseph's cathedral, Hartford.

NEW YORK CITY MILK SUPPLY

PRICE INVESTIGATION BEGINS
Names of the Firms Composing the Alleged Trust.

New York, Dec. 9.—Another so-called trust inquiry was begun in New York today by William Grant, a New York lawyer, designated by the attorney general of this state to decide whether a monopoly exists which controls the price of milk in the greater city. With the opening of the investigation the petition of the attorney general became public giving the names of the firms alleged to be in the combine. Collectively they are the Consolidated Milk exchange, a New Jersey corporation, and individually the Borden Condensed Milk company, the Sheffield Farms-Slawson-Decker company and the Mutual Milk and Cream company.

H. C. Beaks, who admitted that he was instrumental in organizing the Consolidated Milk exchange, was the most important witness, but he denied emphatically that the exchange at any time attempted to conspire to control prices. Under cross examination, however, he admitted concerted attempts by milk dealers to bring about increased milk sales and to incidentally increase prices through articles in a New York newspaper. But this publicity campaign was a failure in a large sense.

Claim That M. H. T. Gets Insufficient State Support.

Boston, Dec. 9.—A claim that the state does not lend sufficient support to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology was made today by President R. C. MacLaurin in his first annual report.

The annual sum is $25,000, which he says, is one-twentieth part of the annual expenditure. He urges the necessity of a new location for the college buildings, stating that the present site is unhealthful.
